

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn Look cheerful.

Attend the lecture tomorrow night.

The roads are in fine shape again in most places.

Help the editor out by telling him of items of news.

Many of our farmers are through corn shucking.

No. 22 is The Advertiser phone on the independent line.

Remember the lecture at the opera house tomorrow night.

Sam Gillespie is now driving the dray team for Knapp & Son.

Mrs. D. T. Smiley, who has been very sick, is considerably better.

Miss Marie Scott went to Stella Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving.

For rent—A good 4-room cottage, with good barn, etc. Inquire at this office.

Hasn't the weather this week been almost ideal? Who would ask for any better?

Collie Hodkin went to Auburn Thursday, where he will probably remain this winter.

Mrs. Else of Shubert has been helping take care of her mother, Mrs. D. T. Smiley.

Dr. B. F. Lorange of Auburn was in Nemaha Sunday to see Mrs. J. M. Sanders.

Dr. W. E. Shook of Shubert was in Nemaha Sunday and Monday, to see patients.

S. H. Vanderslice made a business trip to Rockport, Mo., Monday, returning Tuesday.

Miss Ella Bellas went to Auburn Thursday to eat Thanksgiving turkey with her parents.

Mrs. Earle Gilbert went to Lincoln Monday morning, returning Tuesday evening.

We had to get the paper out all by our lonesome this week, as the angels have deserted us.

Mrs. Will F. Keeling and Walter went to Stanbury, Mo., last Saturday to visit her mother.

Miss Nettie Bunn went to Brock Thursday to spend Thanksgiving holidays with her mother.

Let us figure your lumber bills and show you we can save you money. E. & B. Lbr. Co.

Misses Pearl and Hettie Seid gave The Advertiser office a pleasant call Tuesday afternoon.

Sam Bixby of Auburn drove in to Nemaha Sunday morning, returning after church that night.

Mrs. R. I. Brown and Mrs.
Sadie Scott visited friends in Auburn from Saturday until Monday.

Did you make it a real Thanksgiving day and truly give thanks, or did you just eat a bigger and better dinner than usual and let it go at that?

The only difference between sewing machines, you pay $50 for and our E. & B. ball bearing is the price. Our price is less than one-half.
E. & B. Lbr. Co.

John E. Lambert has lost nearly all of his hogs, over a hundred head, from the prevailing hog disease.

Miss Nellie Robison of Peru is visiting the family of John W.
White, coming down Thursday forenoon.

Elias Adams, who has been at Alliance, Nebr., for some time, arrived in Nemaha Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Delia Webber came in from Auburn Thursday afternoon and is the guest of Mrs. A. R.
McCandless.

Miss Bessie Anderson came in from Auburn Monday afternoon of last week, returning Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. H. Vanderslice and the children went to Watson, Mo., Wednesday, to spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

Mrs. Shafer of Superior, Neb., arrived in Nemaha Wednesday morning on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Harry Gongwer.

The best and strongest fence —the American. Get our prices.
A full stock on hand.
E. & B. Lbr. Co.

Art Littrell, who is now a brakeman on the Burlington, returned to Nebraska City Monday after a few days' visit at home.

For sale—Plymouth Rock cockrels—fine ones.
G. E. N. Sanders.
R. F. D. No. 1, Brownville, Neb.

Elder Hussong, pastor of the Christian church at Peru, came down to Nemaha Tuesday evening, returning Wednesday afternoon.

Rees Lesley went to Riverton, Iowa, Wednesday to see his brother Bob, who is now confined to his bed with cancer of the throat.

Miss Eliza Farson went to Peru Saturday morning, returning Monday and going out to Howe, where she is working for John T. Cox.

Mrs. Carse went to Peru Monday morning and from there was going to Thurman, Iowa, to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. S. Mc-Candless.

Harve Starry and Lew Gillespie will have a horse and mule sale at the stock yards in Glen Rock Saturday of this week, selling 26 head.

Ben Parker and family drove in from Auburn Thursday morning and spent Thanksgiving day with Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs.
J. B. Berger.

Evangelist Samuel Gregg is preaching some of the best and most powerful sermons ever heard in Nemaha. The Christian church made no mistake when they appointed him state evangelist.

Miss Grace Peabody came in from Beatrice Wednesday afternoon to spend Thanksgiving at home. She called around Thursday forenoon to see how The Advertiser was getting along without her valuable assistance, and found things in pretty bad condition, but didn't have time to help us out.

Mrs. Cooper of Shubert came up from Shubert Wednesday and is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W.
H. Barker.

Mrs. Alf Rowen came in from the country Thursday and will help take care of her grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Sanders.

A. V. Farson, sr., went to Peru last Saturday morning, to do some work for Joe Bunger, returning Wednesday evening.

Misses Stella and Bessie Washburn came down from Peru Tuesday evening and will spend the remainder of the week at home.

LOST—A little white Spitz dog, which strayed from the poor farm Monday. A liberal reward will be paid for his return to poor farm. Mrs. Frank Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Littrell returned from Missouri Thursday morning. Mrs. Littrell has been visiting several weeks.
Joe went down about two weeks ago.

Perry Rowen, who has been in Wyoming for the past two or three years, returned home Monday afternoon for a few weeks' visit. He likes Wyoming very much.

Mrs. Fred Seabury, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, and Misses Opal and Bea Seabury came down from Peru Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Grandma Seabury and Mrs. Walter Faris.

Evangelist Gregg was a printer is his younger days, which probably accounts in a large measure for his being such a fine fellow and able preacher. He imbibed it from the printer's case.

F. M. Anderson of Auburn and his brother, Daniel Anderson, of Canute, Okla., came to Nemaha Monday to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. John I. Dressler.
They returned to Auburn Tuesday.

J. W. Smith, who is doing carpenter work at Peru, came down from Peru Wednesday evening, just to get a chance at the big dinner at the Christian church the next day. And he certainly improved the opportunity.

Miss Annie Minick, who has been attending school at Maple Grove, staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T.
Minick, returned to her home near Dunbar Tuesday. Mr. Minick went with her as far as the city.

Willie Kerker, who has been confined to the house for about three months with a broken leg, is able to be out again, with the aid of crutches. He was up town for the first time Monday and had a reunion with Mart Quiller, who was also in town for the first time since he was shot.

Prof. C. M. Hughes of Lexington, Kentucky, has been assisting in the meetings at the Christian church this week, and has helped wonderfully in the singing. He has been in a meeting at McCook where he had charge of the singing, and was on his way to Peru, where he will assist in a meeting to begin next week. He stopped in Nemaha expecting to remain only one day, but was induced to stay for the week.

Blanket Time is Here
We have them. All kinds and prices.

Cotton Flannels from 25 cents to 8½ cents.

Special for Saturday Only All of our 12½ cents Fleece Goods for Waists, Wrappers, etc., at per yard . . . 8½c

If you want a good cup of Coffee try some of ours at 25 and 20 cents per pound.

OUR TEAS—Nothing better at the price. Per lb., 50c.

JNO. W. RITCHEY
Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB.

The Burlington railroad has evidently been taught a lesson, and this year is not fighting paying taxes—in fact, the company paid promptly last week, the amount in this county being $10,468.68.

V. P. Peabody started for Washburn, Ills., last Friday, to see his sister, Mrs. P. J. Burnham, who was very low with cancer of the stomach. Mr. Peabody arrived Saturday afternoon and his sister died the next day, without recognizing him.

Mart Quiller was able to come to town Monday afternoon, for the first time since he was so badly hurt by being shot in the right leg. He is fast recovering from the result of the injury, though it will be some time before the wound is fully healed.

John Watson is eighty years old today, but a person wouldn't think it to see him get around.
He is certainly a well preserved old gentleman. We hope he will live to celebrate his one hundredth birthday, and then some —and we see no reason why he shouldn't.

No booze has been shipped in to Nemaha for several months, with the exception of one box that was sent subject to shipper's orders and the draft sent to the bank. The draft was promptly returned with the information that the bank did not care to be a partner in booze selling.

The Christian church was crowded Sunday night, chairs being placed in the aisles to accommodate the people. There were two special features in addition to the powerful sermon by Evangelist Gregg—the solo by Prof. Hughes and the duet by Sam Bixby and Miss Bessie Anderson of Auburn.

A letter from Rev. M. S.
Foutch, for two years pastor of the Methodist church at Nemaha and Brownville, informs us that he had quit the ministry and has moved to Kearney, the change being made principally on account of his wife's health. He is now in the real estate business.
See his advertisement.

We believe there are no better people on earth in case of sickness and trouble than the citizens of Nemaha. Their kindness and helpfulness is again being shown in the editor's home in the care given the sick mother and in various other ways. Their kindness will never be forgotten.

State Evangelist Samuel Gregg, assisted by Singing Evangelist C. M. Hughes, will give a lecture at the Nemaha opera house on Saturday evening, Nov. 30. The subject is: "The Model Young Man and the Model Young Woman," from their respective view points. The very small admission fee will go towards defraying the expense of the meeting just closing.

Perry Rowen killed two cub bears while in Wyoming, and has had them dressed for rugs, with head and feet attached.
He brought only one home with him, as the other was not finished yet. Perry has a homestead in Wyoming, but hasn't said anything to us about taking a housekeeper back with him. We give this hint to the young ladies of Nemaha free of charge.

Mrs. Rose Gilbert got a hard fall Friday of last week. She was walking with Mrs. Duerfeldt when a board in the sidewalk flew up and tripped Mrs. Gilbert, throwing her headlong on the walk and rendering her unconscious for awhile. She suffered considerably from scratches on face and hands, bruises, and the shock, but is thankful she escaped without worse injuries.

Mrs. Sadie Scott is mourning over the loss of her little white Spitz dog. Mrs. Scott, whose home is in Pawnee county, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Brown. Tuesday Mrs. Brown drove in to Nemaha.
Unnoticed by her the little dog started to follow and was seen from the house just as it was going over the hill. That is the last that was seen of the little fellow, although diligent search has been made. Mrs. Scott thinks a great deal of him and will pay a liberal reward for his return.